Equal Opportunities

The Chatham Historic Dockyard Trust is an Equal Opportunities employer. We monitor our recruitment processes to ensure that all applicants are fairly assessed and that we meet our obligations under the various Acts of Parliament and related Codes of Practice concerned with race relations, sex discrimination and the employment of disabled persons.

Asylum and Immigration Act 1996

Under the Asylum and Immigration Act 1996 we are now obliged to see the following documents at the time of appointment: either a passport or identity card proving right of residence in the UK; or a document showing your National Insurance number (eg P45, P60 or NI card) AND a birth certificate or equivalent.

Data Protection

We are collecting this personal data with the Data Protection Act 2018 (GDPR) firmly in mind and are therefore only collecting information that is required to allow us to fulfil our role as owner of the Historic Dockyard site. All information that is provided will be kept secure and access to this data will be limited only to members of Chatham Historic Dockyard Trust staff who require access for legitimate reasons. Your data will not be shared with any external third parties.

Chatham Historic Dockyard Trust is committed to an Equal Opportunities Policy and welcomes applications from all people regardless of age, creed, gender, race, or disability. While volunteering with CHDT or any of the other volunteer organisation based at Chatham Historic Dockyard you will be required to follow the policies and procedures laid out by the Trust to ensure your safety and that of our visitors.
