Christmas

at The Commissioner's House

2026 PACKAGES

Step into the festive season and celebrate Christmas at The Commissioner's House. From the moment your guests arrive, they'll be welcomed into an atmosphere that's rich with character and warmth. Your party begins with a specially designed cocktail, where friends, colleagues or clients can mingle in the cosy bar. Inside, our beautifully appointed reception rooms offer flexible spaces for dining, dancing and laughter. Round tables dressed with seasonal decor and lighting create an inviting backdrop for your Christmas feast, while a carefully curated menu of festive favourites and seasonal dishes arrive to delight every palate.

As the evening unfolds, there's room for toasts, awards and music, with space to move seamlessly between celebration zones, whether that's the main dining room, the characterful lounge bar, or an open floor for dancing later in the night. Our expert events team are on hand throughout, ensuring every detail reflects the high standards you expect. The entertainment flows, with carriages at Midnight.
